

40th debut on AIM Italia: Borsa Italiana welcomes Gala

AIM Italia today welcomes, Gala, the 40th company to list on Borsa Italiana's market dedicated to small and mid caps.

Gala operates in the energy industry and is a leading supplier of electricity to the Public Administration in Italy.

During the placement the company raised €24.9 million, with a free-float of 12.44% and a market capitalization of €200 million.

EnVent is the selected Nomad.

Luca Peyrano, Head of Italy & Continental Europe Primary Markets of LSEG, said:

"Gala's listing is the largest to date in terms of capital raised on AIM Italia and confirms the nature of the market as a showcase for Italian companies that are looking for investors to support their growth projects.

2014 began positively for Borsa Italiana's growth market, which has already raised €48.5 million".

Gala will list tomorrow on FTSE AIM Italia.

From the end of 2013, FTSE AIM Italia performed +4.24%.
