

A new debut in Borsa Italiana: Assiteca joins AIM Italia

- 13th admission on AIM Italia in 2015
- The company raised €7,35 million at IPO

AIM Italia, the market of Borsa Italiana dedicated to small and medium companies, welcomes Assiteca S.p.A, holding of a group operating in the insurance brokerage sector. The company carries out advisory, insurance intermediation and business risk analysis activities at national and international level.

Assiteca raised €7.35 million at IPO. At the moment of admission the free-float is 11.92% with a market capitalization of about €57.4 million. Integrae Sim acts as Nomad of the operation.

With the admission of Assiteca AIM Italia includes 68 companies with a market capitalisation of €2.6 billion.

Barbara Lunghi, Head of the market of Borsa Italiana dedicated to SMEs, commented:

“We are happy to welcome Assiteca on AIM Italia. The market of Borsa Italiana dedicated to SMEs can prove to be a precious and effective tool to support the growth ambitions of companies, which are day by day increasingly challenged by global markets. We firmly believe that Assiteca will make the most out of this access to capital markets in order to implement its strategies of development and internationalisation.

Tomorrow Assiteca will be a constituent of FTSE AIM Italia.
