

Borsa Italiana welcomes Ferrari

Ferrari N. V. today listed on the main market of Borsa Italiana. The listing in Milan has concluded the process of spinoff of Ferrari from its parent company FCA.

The dual listing will permit the trading of shares in the company on the US market and on the Italian market. Ferrari will be listed on the FTSEMib index.

Raffaele Jerusalem, CEO of Borsa Italiana, said:

“We are very proud to welcome Ferrari to list on Borsa Italiana, a company that is often considered one of the most famous brands in the world and an icon of made in Italy and of the luxury sector. The decision by Ferrari to list the company in Milan as well as the US highlights the key role of Borsa Italiana, as an international benchmark for companies belonging to the luxury and made in Italy sector.”
